Power Eluded Allende, Then Slipped

By ISRAEL SHENKER When Dr. Salvador Allende Gossens was elected President of Chile, the first freely elected Marxist President in the Western Hemisphere, senators and deputies in the joint session of the Chilean Congress serenaded his choice by raising their nis choice by faising their voices in the national anthem.

But the course of politics never runs smooth, and a vibrant chorus of opposition to his leadership persistently roiled the harmony sounded on Cot 24, 1970.

roiled the harmony sounded on Oct. 24, 1970.

In recent weeks there have been almost daily demonstrations in Santiago, the capital, for or against the President. Crisis became endemic, with left-wing supporters of Dr. Allende talking increasingly of "people power" while conservative parties demanded his resignation and a military government that would restore law and order. The left saw a right-wing conspiracy supported from abroad; the right inveighed against a regime they thought was ruining the country. try. Dr.

try.
Dr. Allende found himself embroiled in a prolonged politically motivated strike by thousands of truck owners—most of Chile's commerce moves by road—doctors, professional workers, shopkeepers and owners of small businesses. In a movement that nesses. In a movement that Marx would hardly have credited, the middle classes were proving a vigorous mass force, supporting their demands with mass action.

Women by the tens of thousands paraded in protest against the coalition government.

Inflation and Shortages

The strikers blamed Dr. Allende's policies for rampant inflation — over 300 per cent in a year — the decline in agricultural and industrial production and food shortages. Demonstrators backing Dr. Allende accused Congress and the courts of hamstringing his efforts to reform the nation. Though the Government was Marxist, the Congress was controlled by Christian Democrats and the right-wing National party.

The role of the military was pivotal. In recent weeks the The strikers blamed Dr. Al-

The role of the military was pivotal. In recent weeks the army and navy have played an increasingly independent role in crushing disorders, often without consulting Government officials. The navy helped the police quell disturbances between armed groups of leftist and anti-Marxist students in Valparaiso, and the army conducted raids in search of illegal arms.

army conducted raids in search of illegal arms.

Between them the army and navy had long had a reputation for political neutrality, but at times this seemed endangered by the increasing po-

From His Grasp

The New York Times/Marvine Hov

Units of the national police assigned to guard the presidential palace grouped outside the building during a recent ceremony. Yesterday, the palace was bombed when the guards resisted the army's initial attack.

al of the national police into Christian Democratic party as his Cabinet on Aug. 9. He had moved similarly last October, but this time discord in the military came to the surface. The air force commander resigned, protesting that he did not have the authority he results. "Now we need a disnet that the truckers' fice and work."

liticization of the armed for pared with 35 for the runner-strip of southwestern South States retaliated by waging ecoces.

| States retaliated by waging ecoces. | America between the Andes nomic war against Chile, veto-To restore order President Al-lende enlisted the three com-manders in chief of the armed forces and the director gener-al of the national police into Christian Democratic party as his Cabinat on Aug 0. He hed well and the Pacific and neither by ing loans by international and geography nor the tempera- American financial institutions. ment of the people nor industrial development was she to be compared with Cuba, the other Latin-American country with a family and the compared with rating was bad and that the Government had stopped paying its debte.

trial development was she to compared with Cuba, the six dather of the had been detected by a joint of the surface and of the national police and that the bind cather of the surface and the