Crowds Cheer Mrs.

From News Dispatches pealed to the United Nations MEXICO CITY, Sept. 16 to "prevent reprisals" against With tears streaming down followers of her late husband. her face, Hortensia Bussi de Mrs. Allende received a Allende, widow of the ousted warm welcome from a crowd President of Chile, arrived of some 3,000 Mexican offin Mexico today to accept cials, peasants and workers. political asylum. She ap-President Luis Echeverria and his wife were among the first International Telephone and there were no reports of injuto meet Mrs. Allende, whose husband reportedly committed Police said the attack was In London four persons suicide during Tuesday's military coup.

SEP 1 7 1973

Allende at Mexico Airport

In a brief session with newsmen at the airport, Mrs. Allende gave this account of what happened Tuesday:

"Salvador told me the navy had risen in arms. Then he learned that besides the navy we couldn't count on the army and we didn't have any arms.

"About 11 o'clock, more or less, they started asking him to surrender. The bombings continued at La Moneda and Tomas Moro, the presidential residence. All the offices of the president were destroyed.

"Salvador asked me to leave, "Salvador asked me to leave, said that it was useless to waste blood and that he was going to stay. When one person who was with him asked what he would do, he said, 'I'm going to stay. Go away. Leave your arms here.'" mitted suicide with a subma-chine gun presented to him by Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba.

"He told me before that he would never leave the palace as president and preferred to kill himself," she said.

"He fell fighting for what he considered just," Mrs. Allende told newsmen today.
"They were able to record his "They were able to record his last words. He said he had been betrayed and would not leave the La Moneda palace alive because that would be a betrayal of the people. Then he shouted, 'Long live the workers! Long live Chile!"

Echeverria sent the Mexican airliner to Chile following the coup that toppled Allende's Marxist-led governments.

The Mexican president's press office said that 66 others were aboard the plane with Mrs. Allende. These included the Mexican ambassador to Chile who was recalled following the coup. Many of the others were believed to be Chilean political exiles.

Bomb Causes Damage To ITT Zurich Office

Reuter

ZURICH, Sept. 16 — A bomb early today wrecked part of a building here containing branch offices of the Police said the attack was probably a protest against the been accused of trying to prevent the coming to power of embassy.

President Allende, whose govIn We ernment was o last week's coup. overthrown in which Allende died.

Buenos Aires police said Argentine guerrillas set fire to a suburban branch of the American-owned First National City Bank to protest alleged U.S. involvement in the Chilean coup, police said.

The guerrillas, from the prominent individuals expressed concern today over Allende's death and the fate of his supporters in the aftermath of the coup.

Soviet President Nikolai Podgorny sent a message of condolences to Allende's condolences to Allende's condolences to Allende's condolences to Allende's condolences.

Leave your arms here."

Earlier, in a telephone interview with a Mexican television station from Santiago, Mrs. Allende said she believed that her husband had committed suicide with a submatch of the company of the c were arrested as more than 3,military coup in Chile, since 000 demonstrators carrying the U.S.-based company had black-edged portraits of Allende, marched on the Chilean

In West Germany, youths were arrested Saturday last week's coup.

ITT property has also been attacked in Venezuela and Spain since the coup, during which Allenda died.

Buenos Aires police said prominent individuals ex-

Chilean coup, police said.

The guerrillas, from the Marxist Peoples' Revolutionary Army, sprayed the bank with bullets before setting fire to it, causing serious damage but no injuries, the police said.

In Madrid, the newspaper a message of condolences to Allende's widow, calling the deposed president a "courageous fighter for the cause of the Chilean revolution, democracy and peace," and "an outstanding figure in the national liburation movement."

the offices of Chilean airlines. repression" in Chile.