UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 17 — Cub atoday accused President Nixon of having instigated the coup in Chile last week in which the Marxist Government of President Sal-vador Allende Gossens was overthrown.

The accusations were made at a meeting of the Security Council at which a newly ar-rived representative of the Chilean junta, in turn, display-ed photographs and documents that he said showed Cuba's blatant interference in Chile's affairs affairs.

The charges and counter-charges were made at a tumultuous Council meeting inter-rupted at one point by anti-Castro demonstrators in the gallery, who jumped to their feet scattering leaflets and shouting "What about Cuba?"

Cuba had requested an ur-gent meeting of the Council, in a letter protesting that the Chil ean military forces that car-ried out the coup had shot up the Cuban Embassy and shelled a Cuban merchant vessel.

Angry U.S. Response

The Cuban delegate,, Raúl Alarcón Quesada, lashed out at the military junta, accusing it of murdaring Allanda support of murdering Allende support-ers and torturing political pris-oners. NEW DELHI, Sept. 17--Pre-NEW DELHI, Sept. 17-FIE-mier Fidel Castro said today that the military take-over of Chile was a fascist coup spurred by the United States. spurred by the United States. The Cuban leader, arriving after a trip to Hanoi, de-nounced the United States and said the new Chilean junta would meet stern resistance. 'I think the people of Chile will not accept this oppression by military dictatorship easily and would continue to resist,'' he told newsmen at the airport. Speaking Spanish and using an interpreter, Mr. Castro, in reply to a question about the possible United States role in the coup d'état, remarked: ''The United States is father of the creature.''
