"A provocative campagin against the Soviet Union is being fanned up in the country, anti-Soviet sentiments are being whipped up and there have been acts of arbitrariness and violence against Soviet institutions and citiens in Chile," the statement said.

It accused the Chilean government of specific hostile acts against Soviet seamen, artists, newsmen and citiens.

"In such a situation," the statement said, "the Soviet government regards as impossible the further presence of the USSR embassy in Chile and states that it is severing diplomatic relations with Chile."
