Chilean Demochristians Hit Junta's Plan for Constitution

From News Dispatches

ceived its first polictical setback today when the powerful while Christian Democratic Party selhome. verely criticized its proposals for a new constitution.

The party, the largest in cialis-led government of Presifirst, the Christian Democrats supported the military take-over, but today party leader Heavy machine gu Patricio Aylwin told a news heard during the excerning changes in the constitutional Chilean regime that p.m. to 6 a.m. do not come from the people. "Nobody, and certainly not by force of arms, can impose a constitutional regime."

Aylwin also warned that his national soccer stadium party was "categorically and clearly against" any attempt to use the military government "to turn back history base on Dawson Island in the and establish the model of a Strait of Magellan, he said. permanent reactionary dictalitical parties can be suppressed by decree, nor do we believe that ideas can be suppressed by governmental decisions," he said.

government. A man was killed while resisting a raid on his Military authorities announced that two men were executed by a firing squad for Chile, has opposed the So- manufacturing 2,000 bombs in a plot to assassinate military dent Salvador Allende, who died in last week's coup. At was sentenced by a military court in Antofagasta, 600 ing the coup.

Heavy machine gun fire was "The Christian Democrats do not accept directives concerning changes in the constitutional Chilean regime that the constitutional Chilean regime that the constitution of the constitution

Air force commander. Gen Gustavo Leigh, a member of the junta, said that about 7,000 persons were being held at the

Asked about conditions on the island, Leigh replied, "It is not for tourists. But they are torship."

The party leader, who belongs to a moderate faction of the Christian Democrats, also with medical and social attendance." He added that the island "is without permissiveness. Messages can't be sent back and forth as they could i > least nine of Allende's Cabinet | publications." ministers are held on the island.

not prevented from holding the news conference.

The junta's forces continued who wished to hand over that it would resume relations, as have many West European Raul Cardinal Silva Henriquez and Latin American countries.

to search the country for sup-had told the junta's interior SANTIAGO, Sept. 22—The porters of Allende who might new Chilean military junta re- offer resistance to the new been approached by people been approached by people who wished to surrender arms, but feared they would be arrested.

A UPI, correspondent who visited the stadium where prisoners are being held said that there were lines of people at the ticket booths seeking inpair formation about friends and litary relatives who disappeared dur-

> Some were helped away in tears after learning that the person they sought was not on the list of those being held in the stadium, since anyone not there is presumed to have been killed in the fighting during and after the coup.

> [Newspapers in Stockholm quoted two Swedish forestry experts who were held in the stadium for 11 days as saying that prisoners there were tortured and executed.]

> Relief flights carrying food and medicine from neighboring countries began arriving today, and some international commercial flights were resumed.

The jutna announced that farm workers who received land under Allende's Agrarian reform program would receive deeds to it. The government also allowed 14 magazines that back and forth as they could i had been closed to resume Santiago."

Other sources said that at crackdown on "pornographic

East Germany, Bulgaria and North Korea broke off relanon-Marxist parties to suspend had authorized priests to act following the lead of the Sotheir activities, but Aylwin was not prevented from holding the who wished to be received the relations with the Chilean regime, following the lead of the Sotheir activities, but Aylwin was not prevented from holding the who wished to be received the relations with the Chilean regime, and the relations with the Chilean regime, had authorized priests to act following the lead of the Sotheir activities, but Aylwin was not prevented from holding the whole wished to be relations with the Chilean regime, had authorized priests to act following the lead of the Sotheir activities, but Aylwin was not prevented from holding the whole wished to be relations with the Chilean regime, had authorized priests to act following the lead of the Sotheir activities, but Aylwin was not prevented from holding the whole wished to be relationship to the control of the sotheir activities are relationship.