Swedish Ambassador Extends Shelter To Refugees of Chile's Political Storm

By MARVINE HOWE special to The New York Times

Imilitary rulers.He said that on the afternoonproblems with some 400 refu-Mr. Edelstam, the Swedishbecameof Sept. 11, the day the coupgees who are crowded intoAmbassadorhere, becamebegan, "we saw a lot of sol-tight quarters, with only threeknown as "The Black Pimper-diers coming to the Cubantight quarters, with only threenel" in World War II when hechancery," near his residence,numbers of refugees in theserved in the Norwegian Resist-chancery," near his residence,numbers of refugees in theAnce."Cubans put up a good resist-chancery," near his residence,numbers of refugees in theYice Consul in Norway. Today,ance."The next day, he said, heEmbassies.Huerta, an offer from the Swed-tried to enter the Cubantried to enter the Cubantwo planeloads of refugees, in-Huerta, an offer from the Swed-finally gave him permission tostill have 170 refugees on theirrefugees from Chile on "human-dia," he said, "because the mili-still have 170 refugees on theirfinally gave him permission tostill have 170 refugees on theirstill have 170 refugees to give safe-of people who are in danger,"Te Cuban Ambassador,"The trouble now is that theMrio Garcia, asked him to as-sume protection of the CubanSweden, like most Europeanweek know there are lists ofsume protection of the CubanSweden, like most Europeanminterview.miniterview.minitery refugees not have an litical exiles.

The junta has accused for-eign exiles here of supporting what it describes as left-wing What it describes as left-wing plots against the armed forces and has made mass arrests. There are about 14,000 foreign-ers here, most of them leftist exiles from the neighboring right-wing military dictator-ships of Brazil, Uruguay and Bolivia.

This week, Chile's military rulers informed the United Narulers informed the United Na-tions representative, Oldrich Haselman, that they supported on refugees but that refugees "who have committed criminal acts here will be tried in

Ambassador Edelstam's chief

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 20 -Virtually alone, Harald Edel-stam saved the Cuban Embas-sy from being stormed and provided protection to Chilean, Brazilian and other political refugees. He is a prime mover behind an international effort to win guarantees for security for opponents of Chile's new military rulers.  Edelstam, the Swedish became

The United Nations and the International Nations and the International Nations and the International Red Cross, saying neither had acted firmly. "The United Nations has been very weak; one would take more interest in those who are suffering." He International Red Cross, saying neither had acted firmly. "The United Nations Hat I here International Red Cross, saying neither had acted firmly. "The United Nations Hat I here International Red Cross, saying neither had acted firmly. "The United Nations Hat I here International Red Cross, saying neither had acted firmly. "The United Nations High Commission for Refugees had for for the Cuban Embassy. The junt has aroused for the Cuban Embassy.
The Juntta has aroused for the Cuban Embassy.