The Ambassador, Harald Edelstam, said that he was beaten, kicked and karate-chopped by uniformed carabineros—paramilitary policemen—and plainciothes security men.

Miss Consuela Alonso, a 31-year-old Uruguayan, asked for political asylum three weeks ago in the Cuban Embassy, which has been under Swedish protection since Cuba and Chile broke relations following the September coup. On Saturday she reportedly suffered a severe internal hemorrhage and a doctor ordered her into a climic in eastern Santiago for an emergency operation.

According to Mr. Edelstan, he asked the troops encircling the Cuban Embassy for permission to move her into the clinic. After they had consulted with their headquarters, approval was given by telephone and a military escort provided.
