Chile Expels Envoy of Sweden Over Incidents Following Coup

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 4 ing to enter a hospital, where (Reuters)—The Chilean Government today ordered the Edelstam, to leave the country, a Government spokesman said here.

Chile Denies Violence

Mr. Edelstam said recently that he had been knocked down twice by Chilean policemen when he and his aides tried to keep them from arresting a the Swedish Engling Ministra here.

Mr. Edelstam has been active in helping to protect from the military junta that seized power on Sept. 11 persons allied with the left-wing administration of President Salvador Allende Gossens, who died in the coup d'état.

The announcement that Mr. Edelstam was no longer welcome was made by Enrique Carvallo, under Secretary of Foreign Affairs.

Chile Denies Violence

after Cuban interests in Chile since the two countries broke ties after the coup. Sweden formally protested to Chile over the incident, but the Chilean Foreign Ministry denied there had been any violence.

The woman, 31-year-old Marthat Ercilia, Fernandez, was flown to Stockholm yesterday after the Chilean authorities said that investigations had shown she played no part in "subversive" activities. after Cuban interests in Chile shown she played "subversive" activi played no part in activities.

when he and his aides tried to keep them from arresting a Uruguayan woman who was Uruguayan woman who was Sven O. M. Andersson, by the under his Embassy's protection, in the former Cuban Embassy Stockholm, Victor Rio Seco, acbuilding. She had left the build-cording to Mr. Carvallo.