

A New Ford Secretary

Washington

One-time basketball star Warren S. Rustand has been named appointments secretary to President Ford.

Rustand, 31, was scheduling director on Mr. Ford's vice presidential staff.

Before coming to Washington, he headed a Tucson, Ariz., asset management firm and was on the University of Arizona faculty.

Associated Press
