brought the postponement of a 3.4 million ton shipment of corn and wheat to the Soviets, Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz said yesterday.

Butz said, "I believe there Butz said, "I believe there was a genuine misunder-standing between both coun-tries. The Soviet Union agreed to make modest pur-chases. We just had a mis-understanding about what 'modest purchases' consti-tuted " tuted."

At a news conference, "A genuine misunderstan. ding" between the Soviet Union and the United States anyway at a later date.

> "The Soviet Union has been a good customer," Butz said. "We need to keep them as a customer. Frankly we needed them two years ago when we had large crop surpluses."
