NYTimes

for a D

OCI 2 2 1974

IE NEW YORK TIMES, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1974

Castro Sees Hope for Better U.S. Ties

By DAVID BIRD

Premier Castro said that Mr.

and the United States because forces be used to bolster the United States lift its economic President Ford "is not involved force that would invade Cuba. blockade of Cuba.

and the United States because forces be used to bolster the United States iff it is economic force that would invade Cuba. Blockade of Cuba.
The tinterview given earlier this month and scheduled to be broadcast tonight by CBS tele to any change in the ben "the principal obstacle to any change in the ben "the principal obstacle to any change in the ben "the principal obstacle to any change in the bese days. When everyone way olved with [counter-revolub] blockade many faithers some in Ford a man who is a forgotten that kennedy has taken a courageous stand in "was personally very much in-those days. When everyone way olved with [counter-revolub] blanking each other. He said the wave the states armed forces and on this part. The invasion were there some of the solution of the during the president ford with a socurageous stand in a show this."
The Cuban leader has previbalities all that happened. Of ously criticized Mr. Nixon's at its as a change. As recently as last month, United States armed forces and that a happened. Of the during the presidency of with a cortange in the fact that spernot. Chile during the presidency of with a free invasion were take at a cortage out the cuban leader has previbent at the cuban leader has previben in the fact that Secrem farmed the resolute to the desen the the transion during the presidency of the actions of the the during the presidency of the actions of the the during the presidency of the actions of the the during the presidency of the Nixon's principal forcing point the actions of the the during the presidency of the solution the recolar provident the solution the coale point and the action and its addit at a single condition: the resident ford would public the solution the coale of the solution the coale of the solution the coale point at the solution the coale point the schore of the solution the coale point at the solution the coale point at the solution the coale presidencory for which a force of the solutis the solution the coale p

Mr. Castro posed only one Premier Fidel Castro has said Nixon, then Vice President, had condition before discussions bethat he sees "positive" hope for proposed to President Eisen- tween Cuba and the United closer relations between Cuba hower that United States armed States could begin - that the