

help assure the flow of infor-mation, ideas and sugges-tions to President Ford, es-pecially from individuals outside the government."

outside the government."

John's College, a private in-stitution in Anapolis, Md., from 1969 until 1973, when he became special adviser to Donald Rumsfeld, then U.S. Ambassador to NATO and now White House chief of staff.

Reuters