

Ford coming back to California anyway

President Ford returns to California later this month, notwithstanding his brush with death in Sacramento last week.

He will speak at 4 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 21, at Stanford law school dedication ceremonies.

And he will address the national convention of the AFL-CIO Building Trades unions in San Francisco at 10 a.m. the next day, according to Stan Smith, secretary-treasurer of the San Francisco Building Trades Council.

The Stanford ceremony will mark the opening of the Crown Quadrangle, which links four new law school buildings.

Smith said Ford will address about 250 delegates to the building trades unions' convention. His speech will come on opening day of a three-day meeting at the Hyatt on Union Square.
