New Orleans, March 2 (AP)--

... Earlier in the day, the new U.S. attorney general, Ramsey Clark, said the FBI had investigated Shaw late in 1963 and had cleared him of any link with the assassination. "On the evidence that the FBI has, there was no connection found," Clark said in Washington.

A transcript of Clark's brief interview on the New Orleans arrest of Shaw, obtained from the Justice Department, showed Clark had been asked:

"You say he was checked out and found clear, more or less?"

"That's right, that's true," Clark replied.
