

Life Sued for $6-Million

MIAMI, March 24 (UPI)—A Miamian filed a $6-million libel suit against Life magazine in Dade County Circuit Court today, charging that the magazine published "false and malicious" statements about him in an article on Bahamas gambling. Michael J. McLaney charged that the magazine falsely identified him as a "colleague" of three men identified in the article as gamblers.