

SF Chronicle
6 March 1967

Fifth Man Queried in JFK 'Plot'

New Orleans

District Attorney Jim Garrison's investigators questioned J. B. Dauenhauer, a onetime assistant to Clay L. Shaw at the International Trade Mart here, for more than an hour yesterday.

Garrison booked Shaw last week for conspiring to "commit the crime of murder of John F. Kennedy."

Dauenhauer arrived at Garrison's office in response to a subpoena. He was accompanied by a lawyer, Irving Dymond. On leaving, Dymond said his client "cooperated to the utmost."

"In my opinion, Mr. Dauenhauer has nothing to do with any conspiracy if one existed," Dymond said.

The subpoena was the fifth issued in the probe, which Garrison says will uncover an assassination conspiracy. Only Shaw has been arrested.

BOOKKEEPER

Dauenhauer is a bookkeeper for the firm which manages the Trade Mart's new office building.

He was hired by Shaw in 1946. They were fellow Army officers in France during World War II.

Lee Harvey Oswald, identified by the Warren Commission as the president's assassin, passed out "Fair Play for Cuba" leaflets outside the old Trade Mart in the summer of 1963. Shaw denied men ever knowing Oswald.

MEETING

Garrison has alleged that Shaw, Oswald and free-lance pilot David W. Ferrie met at Ferrie's home in September 1963 and discussed "how they would kill John F. Kennedy."

Shaw, who is free under

Associated Press