

Page-12 S.F. Examiner
★ Tues., Mar. 14, 1967

JFK Probe Turns to Garrison

NEW ORLEANS — (UPI)

— Today District Attorney Jim Garrison has to prove he has enough evidence to prosecute a businessman on charges of conspiracy to murder President Kennedy.

In laying his case before a three-judge court, Garrison may be forced to reveal some details of the alleged plot.

So far, all that is known is that Clay L. Shaw, the businessman, is accused of conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald, pilot David Ferrie and "others."

Oswald and Ferrie are dead.

Garrison said one of these unidentified "others" informed him about Shaw.

PROMISES RULING

Judge Bernard J. Bagert, spokesman for the panel, said he will rule today whether Garrison will have to reveal the name of the secret informant.

Garrison, who will present the case himself, said the informant will be available in case he must testify.

Shaw's attorneys met with the judges yesterday and presented a series of motions. The panel overruled most of them, but did grant one motion setting up special guidelines.

Bagert eased tight restrictions he had imposed on news media last week regarding coverage of the hearing.

MOTION LOST

Attorneys for Shaw lost a motion to have a single judge decide whether Shaw could be brought to trial.

The decision of the panel is to be reached by majority vote.

A former Dallas cab driver, Raymon Cummings, 35, visited Garrison's office yesterday and took a lie test. Results were not revealed.

Cummings claims he took Oswald, Ferrie and another man to Jack Ruby's night club several months before the Nov. 22, 1963, assassination in Dallas.

Cummings said he has received three phone calls threatening his life.