Kennedy 'Plot' Probe

FBI Suspect Is Calle

New Orleans

Layton Martens, arrested here three days after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and held for "investigation of subversive activities," was subpoenaed yesterday by District Attorney Jim Garrison in his investigation of the crime.

Garrison also ordered the arrest of Gordon Novel, 29, a former bar owner whom he described as an important material witness for the grand jury considering the case.

Martens, 24, was ordered to appear before the grand jury next Wednesday. He formerly roomed with the late David W. Ferrie. Both of them were pilots.

Martens, Ferrie and Roland Beauboeuf, then 19, were arrested by Garrison's men at the request of the Secret Service and FBI November 25, 1963. Ferrie was booked for being a fugitive from Texas; Martens and Beauboeuf were booked for vagrancy.

Police records show that Martens was held for the FBI and Secret Service "under investigation of subversive activities.'

Garrison said at that time that Ferrie, Beauboeuf and Martens were picked up "in connection with some leads of our own." All three men were released the next day.

Also subpoenaed yesterday was Donald Dooty, a balding, red-bearded man about 35. No background information was available on Dooty, and he declined to answer newsmen's questions when he went to Garrison's office.

Clay L. Shaw, former director of the International Mississippi gulf coast yesterday following his indictment by the Orleans parish grand jury Wednesday night for conspiring to murder Mr. Kennedy. Shaw will go on trial here at an undetermined date.

He said he first met Ferrie through the Civil Air Patrol and they became good friends. Martens said he believed he knew all of Ferrie's friends and he had never heard Ferrie mention Clay Shaw or Clay Bertrand, Garrison has alleged that Shaw sometimes used Bertrand as an alias. Shaw has denied ever using an alias.

Martens said he first met Shaw in 1965, the year Shaw retired as managing director of the Trade Mart.
