

'JFK Plot' Figure Says He'll Return

COLUMBUS (Ohio) — (AP) — Gordon Novel said today he would voluntarily return to New Orleans as a witness in District Attorney Jim Garrison's investigation of a conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy — but he attached a list of conditions, including immunity from a 1961 burglary charge.

Novel appeared with his Columbus attorney, Jerry Weiner, at a news conference this morning.

Besides setting aside the burglary charge — involving the theft of explosives later found crated for Cuba — Novel said he would insist on being questioned privately by the grand jury without Garrison's presence.

'LOADED JURY'

"I would like to go back and testify to a grand jury that isn't loaded," he said.

He asserted the jury was "composed of some of his (Garrison's) best friends.

At New Orleans, a spokesman for Garrison said Novel's conditions were not acceptable. James Alcock, an assistant district attorney, said Novel would be returned "on our conditions."

Novel also asked that he be assured immunity from any "further charges, intimidation and harassment," and be allowed to return to Ohio after testifying.

Novel added he knew "absolutely nothing" about any conspiracy to assassinate Kennedy.

SEEK WAR RECORD

In New Orleans, meanwhile, a subpoena was issued for the World War II military records of Clay Shaw, the retired business executive charged with conspiring to kill Kennedy.

Garrison has accused Shaw, 54, of conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and David W. Ferrie in 1963 to kill the President.

Also in New Orleans, attorney Dean Andrews, Jr., who once gave legal advice to Oswald, today asked a New Orleans court to reveal some of the grand jury testimony in Garrison's probe.

SF Examiner ***

'JFK Plot' Figure Says He'll Return

COLUMBUS (Ohio) — (AP) — Gordon Novel said today he would voluntarily return to New Orleans as a witness in District Attorney Jim Garrison's investigation of a conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy — but he attached a list of conditions, including immunity from a 1961 burglary charge.

Novel appeared with his Columbus attorney, Jerry Weiner, at a news conference this morning.

Besides setting aside the burglary charge — involving the theft of explosives later found crated for Cuba — Novel said he would insist on being questioned privately by the grand jury without Garrison's presence.

'LOADED JURY'

"I would like to go back and testify to a grand jury that isn't loaded," he said.

He asserted the jury was "composed of some of his (Garrison's) best friends.

Novel also asked that he be assured immunity from any "further charges, intimidation and harassment," and be allowed to return to Ohio after testifying.

Novel added he knew "absolutely nothing" about any conspiracy to assassinate Kennedy.

SEEK WAR RECORD

In New Orleans, meanwhile, a subpoena was issued for the World War II military records of Clay Shaw, the retired business executive charged with conspiring to kill Kennedy.

A spokesman for District Attorney Jim Garrison said the subpoena was mailed to Washington yesterday to be served on the administrator of veterans' affairs.

Garrison has accused Shaw, 54, of conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and David W. Ferrie in 1963 to kill the President.