

They Can't Stop Me: Garrison

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — District Attorney Jim Garrison said "there's no way in the world" to stop his investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy.

"All they can do is slow it down," Garrison said after this series of developments yesterday:

- Issuance of a subpoena directing the Central Intelligence Agency to produce what Garrison claims is a long-suppressed photo of Lee Harvey Oswald, named by the Warren Commission as the assassin of Kennedy. A court ordered the subpoena at the request of Garrison.

- Refusal by the Justice Department to permit an FBI agent to testify before the Orleans County grand jury on his role in the investigation of the 1963 assassination.

- A report of a tape recording that purportedly indicated a bribe had been offered for a statement to help substantiate Garrison's probe.

The application for the subpoena called on Richard Helms, CIA director, to produce before the grand jury a "true photograph" of Oswald and a burly Cuban that Garrison says was taken in front of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City.

Garrison contends the photo was suppressed and a "fake photograph" was submitted in evidence before the Warren Commission.

Garrison wanted FBI agent Regis Kennedy to testify before the grand jury on his role in the assassination investigation, but U.S. Attorney Louis C. LaCour asked Criminal District Judge Bernard J. Bagert to quash his subpoena.

Garrison contends a plot was made in New Orleans to assassinate the President, and several persons were involved.

The only indictment thus far is a conspiracy charge against Clay L. Shaw, 54, a retired New Orleans businessman, who has pleaded not guilty.
