

GARRISON SAYS C.I.A. KNOWS THE SLAYERS

NEW ORLEANS, May 22 (AP) — District Attorney Jim Garrison says that Lee Harvey Oswald did not kill President Kennedy and that the Central Intelligence Agency knows who did.

"Purely and simply it's a case of former employes of the C.I.A., a large number of them Cubans, having a venomous reaction from the 1961 Bay of Pigs episode. . . . Certain individuals with a fusion of interests in regaining Cuba assassinated the President," Mr. Garrison says.

In Washington, a spokesman for the Central Intelligence Agency said that the organization would have no comment on Mr. Garrison's remarks, made Sunday night in a 23-minute interview with a newsman, Bob Jones, on station WWL-TV.

Mr. Garrison said that the agency knew "the name of every man involved and the name of the individuals who pulled the triggers" to kill Mr. Kennedy.

Mr. Garrison said it would take "only 60 minutes for the C.I.A. to give us the name of every last Cuban involved in this and that's how close we have been to the end for sometime, but we are blocked by this glass wall of this totalitarian, powerful agency which is worried about its power."
