

...Guy Bannister had a partner whose name was Hugh Ward, and Hugh Ward was an airplane pilot, and he piloted an airplane in which DeLesseps Morrison was flying, and this somewhat mysterious crash in which they all lost their lives. And the very strange thing is that DeLesseps Morrison is a well known man -- at that time had been commissioned by John Kennedy to conduct an investigation of CIA Latin-American operations. This is just one of -- So Mr. Morrison never did conduct his investigation. This is just one of the many unusual connections of Guy Bannister whose name is never mentioned in the Warren Report, and who is avoided in all the testimony. And why not? After all he was only connected with Lee Oswald, the man they said was the assassin.

So we've got Bannister, we've got Ferrie, who also had his own militia groups he was training -- paramilitary ~~militia groups~~ organizations he was training for an invasion of Cuba. We have the Cuban Revolutionary Council organized by the CIA. We have Archacha Smith who was an official of the Batista government, had a record ~~with~~ <sup>with</sup> handling money there as he did in New Orleans.....(tape ends abruptly)
