... a White House spokesman...
... evidence in the John F. Kennedy assassination...

The District attorney made his remarks Saturday night in a copyrighted interview that carried by WFLA-TV of Tallahassee.
Garrison accused President Johnson of deliberately concealing "pertinent evidence" and called him "the man who had the most to gain from the assassination."

Asked for comment at the Atlanta, Ga., House Press Secretary George Christian merely replied, "Well, he's said that before."

The New Orleans parish official who reiterated earlier statements that the Warren Commission was "a fraud" and that the federal government covered up evidence "at every opportunity."

During the 10-minute show, Garrison...
... which Garrison said was the "bullet that killed Kennedy."

Garrison said he saw the bullet... the final, fatal shot to Kennedy's head... of a picket fence and
... drainage system under

... he was the deliverer...
... Garrison replied...
... who operated at the
... in the assassination.

... he added. "But I'd rather not speculate on who was standing there."

... the interviewer, said he had no further political ambitions...
to begin with," he said. "I have never had any special interest group behind me. I came into office with no strings at all."

"I want every man, woman and child to know that they have been lied to by their government."
