

Speaker Fails To Appear for Address at LSU

A talk at LSU on the Kennedy assassination was canceled last night after the speaker, Ed Butler, failed to show up by 10 p.m.

Butler reportedly was unable to fly from Washington, D.C.

He was in Washington to take part in the International Trial of Communism, sponsored by the Young Americans for Freedom.

Butler is executive president of the Information Council of the Americas, an organization that distributes anti-communist propaganda in Latin America.
