MARK LANE

Mark lane, one of the first critics of the Warren Commission report on the Kennedy Assassination, has said that he will write regularly for the Free Press on the progress of the Garrison investigation. Mark Lane is now living in New Orleans.

MOONFIRE

The strange event for this week is happening at Moonfire Mountain at midnight this coming Saturday. It's a stay all night affair (bring sleeping bags) according to the Free Press calendar for March 32. Everyone who attended Lou Marvin's moonfire evening at the Auditorium this or that has heard
