

Surgery for Garrison

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 5 (AP) —District Attorney Jim Garrison underwent an operation to correct an abdominal hernia. He was reported afterward to be resting comfortably. Assistant District Attorney James Alcock said he did not think the operation would delay or affect the Sept. 10 trial of Clay L. Shaw, the retired New Orleans businessman Mr. Garrison has charged with conspiring to murder President Kennedy.