

Gremillion Loans Held No Violation

The Louisiana Board of Ethics for Elected Officials ruled that the nearly $200,000 in loans from Louisiana Loan and Thrift Co. obtained by companies in which Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion has interest did not involve a code of ethics violation.

In some editions yesterday, the States-Item erroneously reported that the board had ruled the loans represented a violation of the code.
