

2 N.O. Lawyers Will Lead Study

Two New Orleans attorneys have been appointed to lead a 13-member committee named by the Louisiana Supreme Court to study the state's jury system.

Eberhard P. Deutsch was named chairman and Thomas C. Wicker Jr. was appointed vice chairman.

The committee is to study the advisability of adopting uniform jury instructions in order to simplify trials and appeals in jury cases.

The Louisiana State Bar Association recommended the study.