

Shaw Charged Anew

New Orleans

District Attorney Jim Garrison yesterday filed perjury charges against Clay Shaw, who was acquitted only three days ago of a charge that he had plotted to kill former President Kennedy.

Garrison's complaint charged Shaw with lying when he denied at his trial that he had ever seen or been acquainted with Lee Harvey Oswald or David W. Ferrie.

Garrison had charged that Shaw conspired with Oswald and Ferrie, both now dead, to kill the President in 1963.

"I'm shocked," said Edward Wegmann, one of Shaw's attorneys, when he appeared with Shaw to post $1000 bond at the court clerk's office.

"Ditto," said Shaw when asked his reaction to the new charge.

of March 2, 1967, when he

Shaw told newsmen he would stand by his statement of March 2, 1967, when he first said he did not know Oswald or Ferrie. And he repeated, "I never knew Oswald or Ferrie."

"Mr. Shaw was telling the truth and the truth will come out in the next trial as it did in the last," said F. Irvin Dymond, Shaw's chief defense counsel at the conspiracy trial. "Let's not forget the jury was unanimous in its acquittal of Shaw."

The Metropolitan Crime Commission and the New Orleans Bar Association announced they planned to discuss possible action against Garrison. Associated Press
