

gold.

BULLETIN

Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion and four others indicted in the Louisiana Loan & Thrift Corp. case today entered innocent pleas on arraignment before Federal District Judge Frederick J. R. Hebee. The other defendants are state Rep. Salvador Anselmo, Earnest A. Bartlett Jr., Charles H. Ritchey and Joseph Cavanaugh. Their attorneys were given 90 days in which to file pleadings attacking the indictment.