

NEW ORLEANS STATES-ITEM

—States-Item Photo.
WILLIAM J. KRUMMEL SR., left, foreman of the New Orleans Parish Grand Jury, sits with deputy foreman ALEXANDER M. TODD III after they were sworn in today for a six-month term.

Judge Becker Seats New Grand Jury Here

A new Orleans Parish Grand Jury was sworn in this morning for a six-month term by Criminal District Court Judge Rudolph F. Becker.

The 12-man jury is headed by William J. Krummel Sr., 501 Emerald, an executive with a local stevedoring contracting firm. The deputy foreman is Alexander M. Todd III.

The outgoing grand jury was released from its duties today by Criminal District Court Judge Thomas Brahney Jr.

The new jury will sit until next March when the jury charge will rotate to Judge Frank J. Shea.

The new jurors are William J. Krummel Sr., foreman; Alexander M. Todd III, deputy foreman; Pasquale Palumbo, Robert H. Taylor, Lambert C. Boisiere Jr., John M. Holmes, Mrs. Patricia McCaffrey Kearns, Lucian Bailey, Francis E. Dakin, John F. Guenther Jr., Earl Randall and Frank W. Matthews.