Bond Procedure,

District Attorney candidate, -As DA he would recommend linked Connick wounding of a Michigan police- takes into account the habits man to a free-on-bond New Or- and records of the professional leans prisoner today, and blamed the bail bonding procedure for the spiraling crime fessional. rate Connick, speaking to the weekly Signa Delta Chi Newsmaker luncheon at the Press Club of New Orleans, also said, "I am afraid to think how much higher our crime rate would be lected." Connick said higher our crime rate would be lected," Connick said. if the same thing the DA alnunlowed to go on here was being permitted to go on by other district attorneys." district attorneys.

Cnnick traced the record of CONNICK SAID McCormick had a crime record in New Orleans dating back to 1966 when he was arrested for attempted glary.

"The DA's office refused the charge," Connick said. "On Dec. 30, 1967, McCormick was arrested for a burglary complete to make it a crime for any bondsman to write a bail bond on the installment plan. mitted in New Orleans. He was on the installment plan. bond—with the Maryland National Insurance Company. He failed to appear for trial Jumped bond in Orleans Parish. charged and posted a $1,000 His bond was forfeited. It has not been collected," he said.

jected of robbing a Negro man on Louisiana Ave. last April.
"He was also wanted in Birm"It would recommend that ingham, Mich., for committing an armed robbery on July 23, 1969," Connick said.

THE DA CANDIDATE said McCormick was arrested here Sept. 1 and is now in parish prison under a $50,000 bond.

changes in the bail bonding States over 60 varieties can be procedure:

the to the court a bond

-Swift prosecution of professional criminals who post

HE ALSO RECOMMENDED:

-A consistant check to determine what companies are writing bonds and once the George McCormick, the man ac-cused of wounding a police detective last month in Pontiac, $70,000 amount of deposit with the state treasurer that company must settle up before writing more bonds.

-Regular checks by the city auditor to determine the status murder and aggravated bur of bail bond forfeitures and col-

Connick said during the last

HE SAID NEW Orleans re-Connick charged that while on bond McCorick was identified as one of two men susied as one of two me fugitives. "It would recommend that Jim Garrison get 1,000 of these cards and start rounding up these criminals so that I prosecute them when I take office," said Connick.

Only one species of goldenrison under a $50,000 bond. rod is wild in England, but in Connick recommended these the eastern region of the United found.