

(An Editorial)

What Kind of DA?

District Attorney Jim Garrison says the States-Item is against him. He is right. We are against him. But for good reasons.

In a series of front page editorials, we have spoken out against Mr. Garrison. We felt an obligation to do so. Many private citizens would like to speak out against Mr. Garrison. But they are afraid. For Mr. Garrison has shown he will not hesitate to ruin innocent men.

This newspaper is not afraid of Jim Garrison. We were serving this community long before anyone ever heard of Jim Garrison and we will continue to serve it long after he has gone. And so we speak for those whose voices are stifled by fear.

We have criticized Mr. Garrison for the way he has misused and abused the vast powers of his office. We have called him a phantom district attorney for refusing to debate his opponents, for refusing to answer the questions that are preying on the minds of the people of New Orleans.

We have criticized him for indulging in wild fantasies while crime runs rampant in our city. We have criticized him for his negligence in collecting forfeited bail bonds. And we have criticized him for dropping charges against hardened criminals and for failing to vigorously prosecute others.

Mr. Garrison seeks to portray himself as a champion of the little man. It is a good political tactic. But if Mr. Garrison is genuinely interested in the little man, why has he not prosecuted those who take advantage of the little man? For it is the little people who suffer most at the hands of criminals. Why hasn't Mr. Garrison investigated Louisiana Loan & Thrift in which hundreds of little people stand to lose their life's savings?

If the people of this city want a district attorney who will continue to let crime run rampant, if they want a district attorney who will continue to make this city the laughing stock of the nation, then by all means they should vote for Jim Garrison.

But if the people of this city are ready for a real DA, if they are ready for a full-time DA who will enforce the law with firmness and justice for all, then HARRY CONNICK is their man.

Ward Says DA Sought Support Of Kennedys

District Attorney candidate Charles Ray Ward told a rally last night incumbent Jim Garrison met secretly with an emissary of the Kennedy family to seek their support in the prosecution of Clay Shaw, but was turned down because his evidence was deemed insufficient.

Addressing a rally at 18 Rosa Park, Ward said prior to the trial of Shaw, Garrison revealed to the Kennedy family the evidence on which he based his claim that Shaw conspired to kill President John F. Kennedy.

"Jim Garrison was in touch with the Kennedy family—both (the late) Bobby and Teddy Kennedy," Ward said. "They reviewed Garrison's evidence and they came to the conclusion that Garrison was going to use the death of President Kennedy to further his own political ambitions—and that Garrison's investigation was a farce."

Ward, who was a first assistant DA under Garrison but did not participate in the unsuccessful prosecution of Shaw, said, "Certainly, if the Kennedy family had any faith in Jim Garrison, they would have come to his aid. They would defend him now.

"But not only did they not come to his aid, they have publicly criticized him and refused to have anything to do with his investigation."

Ward concluded, "If the Kennedy family reviewed the evidence and did not have any confidence or faith in Jim Garrison, how can the people of New Orleans be fooled?"