

Letters

Backs Haggerty

Editor, States-Item:

Judge Edward Haggerty to my knowledge has long been a very much respected criminal judge in our community.

I wonder how anyone can condemn a man of such high prestige and dignity, going even further at such a late stage in his life even to have the slightest thought in mind to disgrace not only himself but his family and constituents who closely surround him. This thought is utterly ridiculous.

Could this misfortune have been planned? No one could ever make me believe otherwise.

I have known Judge Haggerty at least half of my life, and I can truthfully say he is straight. It proves all that I say due to the responsible position he has held all these years.

I hear that we do live in a "democracy" and I have also heard the very familiar words "a man can hang his hat anywhere."

Every night of the week you can turn on your TV and get in on a rated M movie. Bourbon Street is pitiful to sightseers with their nudies on the stage. And what about these awful pictures at the theaters? Disgraceful. This world has turned out to be: who can get the next guy by the neck first. It seems the good guy just can't get to first base 'cause the first move he makes he is a sure loser.

I say recognize the good of Judge Haggerty and give him compassion. Let him know his friends are all on his side. Everyone deserves justice.

Mrs. Arthur Denstedt

Other Points

Editor, States-Item:

I am writing to let Chris Shearouse know that he forgot to let the Super Bowl visitors on some other interesting thing in New Orleans to see.

First, to take a look at a very wide neutral group of beautiful Canal Street, too much grease from Public ice buses you can't tell terrazzo or asphalt. Schiro should give the and mops to clean it of those silly little things showed on TV the

While they are at Canal Street, tell them at the beautiful the river to F They will see through all of the deplorable things that make fire escapes

Then, if you walk in front of Building

Morrison will not they get the money on it, people have son tair wil en te t