R. J. Zibilich Prosecutor In Haik Case

Attorney Robert J. Zibilich has been appointed special prosecutor in the case of attorney Robert G. Haik, charged with the unauthorized use of $50,000 belonging to the mother of Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison.

Zibilich was appointed by Criminal District Judge Malcolm V. O'Hara in place of a representative of the DA's office.

Haik has pleaded not guilty in the case involving Mrs. Jane Garrison Gardiner, 70, of Laurel, Miss.

Zibilich, confirming his appointment today, said Mrs. Gardiner's attorney is now in the process of filing pleadings in the federal court, the deadline for which is March 13.
