

Clay Shaw's Judge Ousted

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — Judge Edward Haggerty Jr., who presided at the Clay Shaw conspiracy trial, was ordered from office today by the Louisiana Supreme Court in a ruling stemming from his arrest at a stag party.

The court, by a 6-1 ruling, ordered Haggerty's seat on the Criminal District Court declared vacant. Haggerty argued that there was no indication off-bench activity ever affected his behavior on the bench.