THE NEW YORK TIMES

Garrison Asks Curb

since been suspended.

since been suspended.

Mr. Garrison, who unsuccessfully prosecuted businessman clay L. Shaw on a charge of conspiring to kill President tomorrow to try to stop two New Orleans newspapers from publishing contents of an affidavit in which Mr. Garrison and nine other persons are charged with taking bribes to protect pinball machine operators.

Two of the nine others are Capt. Frederick A. Soule Sr., 51 years old, a member of the New Since been suspended.

Mr. Garrison, who unsuccessfully prosecuted businessman clay L. Shaw on a charge of the affidavit.

Judge Christenberry scheduled a hearing for tomorrow and said the papers could continue publishing the material until he issues a permanent ruling.

The affidavit gives details concerning information that led to the arrest of the 10 men.

Mr. Garrison, who unsuccessfully prosecuted businessman clay L. Shaw on a charge of uled a hearing for tomorrow and said the papers could continue publishing the material until he issues a permanent ruling.

The affidavit gives details concerning information that led to the arrest of the 10 men.

Mr. Garrison said that if the case.

The others charged are New Orleans officials of various coin machine companies.

The 10 men were charged Wednesday in Federal Court

Wednesday in Federal Court

Orleans Police Department as-bert W. Christenberry yester-signed as an investigator on day denied a petition to halt ized Crime Control Act of 1970. On Papers Printing Mr. Garrison's staff, and Sgt. temporarily The Times-Picayune United States Magistrate Ingard Robert H. Frey, 38, commander and The New Orleans States-O. Johannesen has set a pre-Affidavit on Bribes of the police department's vice Item from publishing the affiliminary hearing for Friday at squad. Both policemen have davit. The two newspapers are 10 A.M., and the defendants printing daily installments from are free on personal recogniz-the affidavit.