

Garrison Wins Point

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29 (AP)—A special state prosecutor who tried to charge District Attorney Jim Garrison with malfeasance was overruled today, leaving Mr. Garrison facing Federal charges in a long-standing gambling-bribery case. Judge Malcolm V. O'Hara of Criminal District Court said the special prosecutor he had appointed, Benjamin E. Smith, had no authority to lodge new charges against Mr. Garrison. Mr. Garrison has not been indicted on the Federal charges, which were lodged last June.
