Hefner's 'Big Bunny' Transports 41 Orphans

NEW YORK, April 9 (UPI) — Forty-one Vietnamese orphans, some riding on Playboy publisher Hugh Hefner's seven-foot circular bed, were flown to new homes today aboard the "Big Bunny," Hefner's custom DC-9 jet.

The jet picked up the orphans in San Francisco and brought them to New York on a flight sponsored by the Friends of Children Inc. of Boulder, Colo., and arranged by Mrs. Yul Brynner, wife of the actor, who is adopting a Vietnamese orphan.

The children, ranging in age from 18 months to 3 years, were carried down the ramp from the jet by Playboy bunnies, nurses and agency representatives.
