

4-22-75
WPS

Oman, Saigon

Establish Ties

Agence France-Presse

MUSCAT, April 21—The sultanate of Oman announced here today it has decided to establish diplomatic relations with South Vietnam at ambassadorial level.

A foreign ministry spokesman stressed that the decision involved only the present South Vietnamese government. He declined further details.

An official communique said the decision was aimed at the "reinforcement of friendship and cooperation" between the two countries.