GI Deserters Surface in Saigon

SFChronicle
Washington

Some American military deserters, hidden in Saigon for years, have surfaced to get on the evacuation planes, State Department officials said yesterday.

They did not say just how many deserters turned up at the U.S. embassy seeking evacuation.

"We aren't asking questions. If an American wants to go home, we'll get him home," one official said. "The Defense Department and the FBI can worry later if they want to pursue these guys."
