

APP
No More
Mail to Vietnam

Mail service to South Vietnam was halted yesterday, San Francisco Postmaster Lim P. Lee announced.

He acted on instructions from Washington ordering an immediate halt. No post office, the order said, will accept any mail for South Vietnam because there is no air or surface transportation available for it.

Persons who have already mailed undeliverable packages or letters can apply for refunds for the stamps, Lee said.
