Thieu Plans Week in Taiwan

TAIPEI, April 28 (AP) — Former President Thieu plans to remain in Taiwan at least another week before deciding whether to fly to another country, the South Vietnamese embassy said today.

A spokesman denied reports that Mrs. Thieu had accompanied her husband to Taiwan Saturday. He said he did not know her whereabouts or whether she would be joining her husband here, where Thieu's brother is ambassador.

The spokesman said it was not known where Thieu will go if he leaves Taiwan. There have been reports he would eventually settle in Britain or the United States.
