War Tore At Fabric Of U.S. Life

Nothing divided Americans so much as the war. Veterans protested in Washington and youths burned their draft cards. Four died when Guardsmen fired on Kent State students protesting against the Cambodian incursion.

Associated Press