End of An Ad Campaign

WHEN Le Hang Ngoc (right) advertised in a Saigon newspaper a few months ago for an American husband, Thomas Elder answered the ad. They were married in Saigon in January. Eldre, an employee of an electronics firm in Vietnam, had to return to the United States two days after the wedding, but last week Le Hang Ngoc arrived at Camp Pendleton, and Elder and his bride, 19, were together—and overjoyed—at their Santa Ana home Monday.
