

Reds Ask for Viet Embassy in Washington

Washington

The Viet Cong's Provisional Revolutionary Government asked the United States yesterday, through the Algerian embassy, for takeover rights to the South Vietnamese embassy here.

An official said last night, "We have the matter under consideration."

Around the world, the new rulers in Saigon are claiming access to all South Vietnamese property.

Washington Post