30,000 REFUGEES LEFT IN VIETNAM

Ship Took on 9,000—Others Abandoned on Beaches

AGANA, Guam, May 7 (AP) -An evacuation captain whose ship reached here after more than a week at sea says thousands of South Vietnamese "howling and crying, 'come back!" were left behind on the beaches.

Capt. Arthur Boucher said that "at Phu Cuoc there were 30,000 to 50,000" would-be refugees left behind who pleaded to board his ship, the freighter American Challenger.

"There were people afloat in boats. They were scrambling to get on the ship," said Captain Boucher, who arrived yes-terday with his ship, one of the last to leave South Vietnamese waters.

The American Challenger took on 9,000 refugees, about double her capacity. Later, nearly half were shifted to other vessels, Captain Boucher said.

Arriving here shortly after the Challenger was the freighter Pioneer Commander with about 5,400 Vietnamese refugees.

The Challenger left Vung Tau, 40 miles southeast of Saigon, shortly before the fall of Saigon. The Commander de-parted with its load of refu-gees April 23, a week before Saigon surrendered.

Many refugees were Roman namese priests who apparently a life-size statue of the Virgin Mary.

Associated Press Young Vietnamese refugees at Camp Pendleton, Calif. wearing oversize Government-issue coats as they strolled the base yesterday. The temperatures-in the 60's and 50's-are much lower than in Vietnam.

Catholics, led by several Viet-them carrying their belongings former president of the South in fishing nets, who came bare- Vietnamese Senate who signed brought along their entire con-footed in black pajama-like the 1972 Paris agreement. clothes. Others included a former For-The Pioneer also carried an eign Minister, high police offi-

Both ships carried fishermen élite group of passengers, cials and the former director and their families, some of headed by Tran Van Lam, a of Tan Son Nhut airport.