HONG KONG, May 9—North Vietnamese Premier Pham Van Dong today praised the Soviet Union and other socialist countries for support and aid that he said precipitated the Communist victory in Vietnam, the North Vietnam News Agency reported.

Speaking at a reception, Dong said "The support and precious assistance of the Soviet Union, the other socialist countries and the world people in general have played an important part in our winning repeated successes and in our scoring the great victory recently."

"I wish the Soviet people many more and yet greater successes in building the technical and material foundation of communism," Dong added.
