

HOLLYWOOD — Singer Eartha Kitt said Friday American-born poor and racial minorities should take priority over Vietnamese refugees for federal funds. people who have not yet been fully recognized as citizens, thus causing them to be more and more alienated by unjust priorities?" she said.

"Millions of Indian, black and Mexican people were born in the United States but have not become first-class citizens. Why should the Vietnamese take priority over the struggles of American She said she was not against providing aid to the Vietnamese, "but America's poor and minorities should receive such concern and economic response first."