FLOW OF REFUGEE SNAGGED ON COAST

Security Checks and Hunt for Sponsors Are Factors

By JON NORDHEIMER Special to The New York Times

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif., May 13-The original optimistic timetable for moving refugees from Southeast Asia through this processing center was being revised today.

designation of sponsors for the their home offices.

with the speed first forecast.

Confusion over policy was working with the refugees has down and the bulk of the refuprevalent as the number of broken down at several key gees arrive? refugees approved to leave the camp dropped radically in the last few days.

Contributing Factors agencies, initially scheduled to cast for the operation. take from sevento 10 days, have bogged down.

willing to take responsibility

¶Coordination of policy in eration at Camp Pendleton. Relief agencies, public and several areas of refugee proprivate, are expressing doubt cessing has fallen apart between that security clearances and a agency representatives here and one of the major relief agen-vith their parishes to remind cies said that he doubted that them that refugees are lan-Contributing to the decline all the Vietnamese headed for guishing in the camps." have been the following factors: this country could be cleared ¶Security checks of the refu-through the processing centers of the Department of Health, gees by four investigative in the three-month period fore-

"Unless there's a real surge of concern by the American The location of sponsors public for these people, we'll willing to take responsibility still be here this time next for Vietnamese and Cambodian families has proceeded haphazardly.

Coordination of policy in States Catholic Conference op-

Pessimistic on Future

refugees can be accomplished Similarly, coordination be-what happens when the news From what I've seen the State

tween the different agencies media interest in the story dies

"I think that in six months Moreover, a top official of there will be priests pleading

Meanwhile the camp director Education and Welfare said that the processing effort could be facilitated by greater coordination between the eight volunteer agencies contracted by the State Department to assist in the resettlement of the displaced persons.

"It is our view that the system is not working as it should and can work," said Dan and can work," said Dan Sprague of H.E.W. "The poli-"Some of the initial response cies controlling this situation has been good," he said, "but need immediate clarification.

C

Department does not have only one telephone was avail much leverage over the volun-able to his staff, and telephone teer agencies. We need a basis checks had to be made out of

to stop sending lists of pro- the total to eight by the end posed sponsors to the volunteer of the week. posed sponsors to the volunteer agencies for verification because backlogs had already piled up. There are nearly 5,000 refugees in camp who have identified sponsors on their processing forms, he explained, but only a fraction of these to enter the sponsors in relationship to enter the sponsors in relationship to enter the sponsors in relationship the week.

Further, many of the sponsors the incoming refugees identified on the forms were the names of the only Americans they knew in this country. but only a fraction of these to enter the sponsorship relasponsor have been checked by tionship, but many balked, he the volunteer agencies in telephone calls around the counlic Conference said that his entered this camp over the team of 40 workers has been last two weeks, and has refully assembled for only a few duced its staff from 80 to 25 days. Until last week, he said, for lack of work.

Lack of Phones

for a coordinated performance." hotel rooms. He now has four He said that H.E.W. had had telephones, and hopes to bring added.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service has finished Mr. Battaglia of the Cathomore than 25,000 refugees who